Dear Parent/Caregiver

RE: Year 10 Drama Excursion

“Titus Andronicus” by William Shakespeare
Presented by Red Phoenix Theatre Company
Wednesday 24th August 7PM

In line with the National Curriculum and the IB MYP Creative and Critical Thinking capabilities, it is a requirement of the Year 10 Drama course that all students attend a live theatrical performance for the purpose of review writing. The 10 Drama students have been booked in to see a Red Phoenix Theatre Inc. performance of “Titus Andronicus”.

“Titus Andronicus is Shakespeare’s Game of Thrones. Without doubt, it is his bloodiest play. The play is a gripping thriller and was so popular in his own lifetime that it became a smash hit.”

ARRANGEMENTS:

• DATE: WEDNESDAY August 24th 2016, at 7 PM
• Students will manage their own transport to and from the venue – The Holden Street Theatre, 34 Holden Street Hindmarsh.
• Students are to meet their teacher at 7pm in the foyer.
• The performance begins at 7:30pm.
• The play is expected to run until approximately 10:15pm but we recommend the students are picked up at 10:25pm.
• Students are expected to wear NEAT CASUAL DRESS and should bring note taking materials.

Review Writing is an assessable component of the Year 10 Drama course and as such, students are expected to attend. Tickets are pre-purchased prior to the performance and payment is part of the subject course fees, additionally we have tried to allow as much time as possible so that arrangements can be made to ensure your child’s attendance. Therefore, without legitimate reasons with sufficient notice and documentation (such as a sick certificate), the cost will not be refunded if your child is not present. Your child will be individually notified if course fees are overdue.

Please return the attached consent form to your child’s Drama teacher no later than Tuesday, 23rd August. If you have any concerns, please don’t hesitate to contact the school.

Yours sincerely
