

Annual General Meeting
of the Norwood Morialta High School
Governing Council

Monday 2 March 2020 @ 6.30 – 7.30pm
at 505 The Parade, Magill

All parents / caregivers are invited to attend the Annual General Meeting of the Norwood Morialta High School Governing Council.

Norwood Morialta High School Governing Council is currently seeking nominations from people who wish to serve the school and its community through appointment to the Governing Council.

The Governing Council is the school's governing body and, as such, has the principle responsibility for strategic planning, broad policy setting and financial monitoring of the school. In continuing our work to provide teachers and students with the best learning environment, we welcome input and involvement from our wider school community.

If you are interested in serving the school in this capacity, you are invited to submit your details via email to: connie.orlando646@schools.sa.edu.au or complete your details and return to Middle or Senior Campus Front Office for the attention of Connie Orlando by Friday 28 February 2020.
