Dear Parent / Caregiver,

Re: Personal Project Marking Day

As you would be aware, Year 10 students have been working on some exciting personal projects over the past six months.

On Monday 29 June, Year 10 Personal Project teachers will be taking part in a moderation and marking day to assess these major projects. As a result, Year 10 students will not be required to attend school for the day.

However, if your child has not submitted the Personal Project by Friday 19 June, they will be required to attend school and spend the day working on the Personal Project.

Students at home are required to utilise this day to commence Task 2 of their Personal Learning Plan (PLP) – a compulsory subject for the South Australian Certificate of Education (SACE). Students must pass this subject in order to gain their final certificate of education in Year 12 and it is best completed in Year 10.

Additional communication will be sent to the families of students required to attend school on Monday 29 June.

If you have any further queries regarding the day, contact Georgina D'Angelo on 8365 0455 or via email at Georgina.Dangelo880@schools.sa.edu.au

Yours sincerely,

Georgina D'Angelo
